PITMAN ENGLISH CODE OF CONDUCT - GROUP SESSIONS

- You arrive to the class on time and stay for the entirety of the class.
- You mute yourself when you're not speaking so background noise doesn't interrupt the class.
- If another learner or the teacher is speaking, you allow him/her to finish before speaking.
- In group classes, you allow others to have equal opportunity to speak in the class.
- You do not use language that makes others uncomfortable, i.e. profane, sexually suggestive, rude or violent language.
- You do not make disrespectful comments about race, religions, or countries.
- You wear appropriate attire in the class, i.e. a shirt, pants, or other appropriate clothing.
- In group classes, your cell phone is turned off or set to vibrate so you and your fellow participants and teacher are not distracted during the class.
- The classroom is a place to learn and practice English, so please use English as much as possible during classes for both speaking and writing.
- The Pitman English methodology is for adults, and our classes are aimed at students 13 years and older. To reaffirm: classes are not for minors.

I agree with the above mentioned terms and conditions of Pitman English Group Classes. *
